THE MERALD.

Miles Miles and Alberta. Miles The liquor vote will be taken in less than three weeks, and up to date the contest has been of a some what sober and strid nature. Reports from throughout the province go to show that conditions are the go be show that conditions are besame—that the people are thing little or no interest in the matter, or, having their minds fally made, up, there is no use attending meetings or getting excited over the matter. One thing, every elector whould rescold their vote, and thus give force to the verdict. The selection will be held on Monday.
